Greg

To a real neat kid
I met last year.
Remember all the good times we had in class.
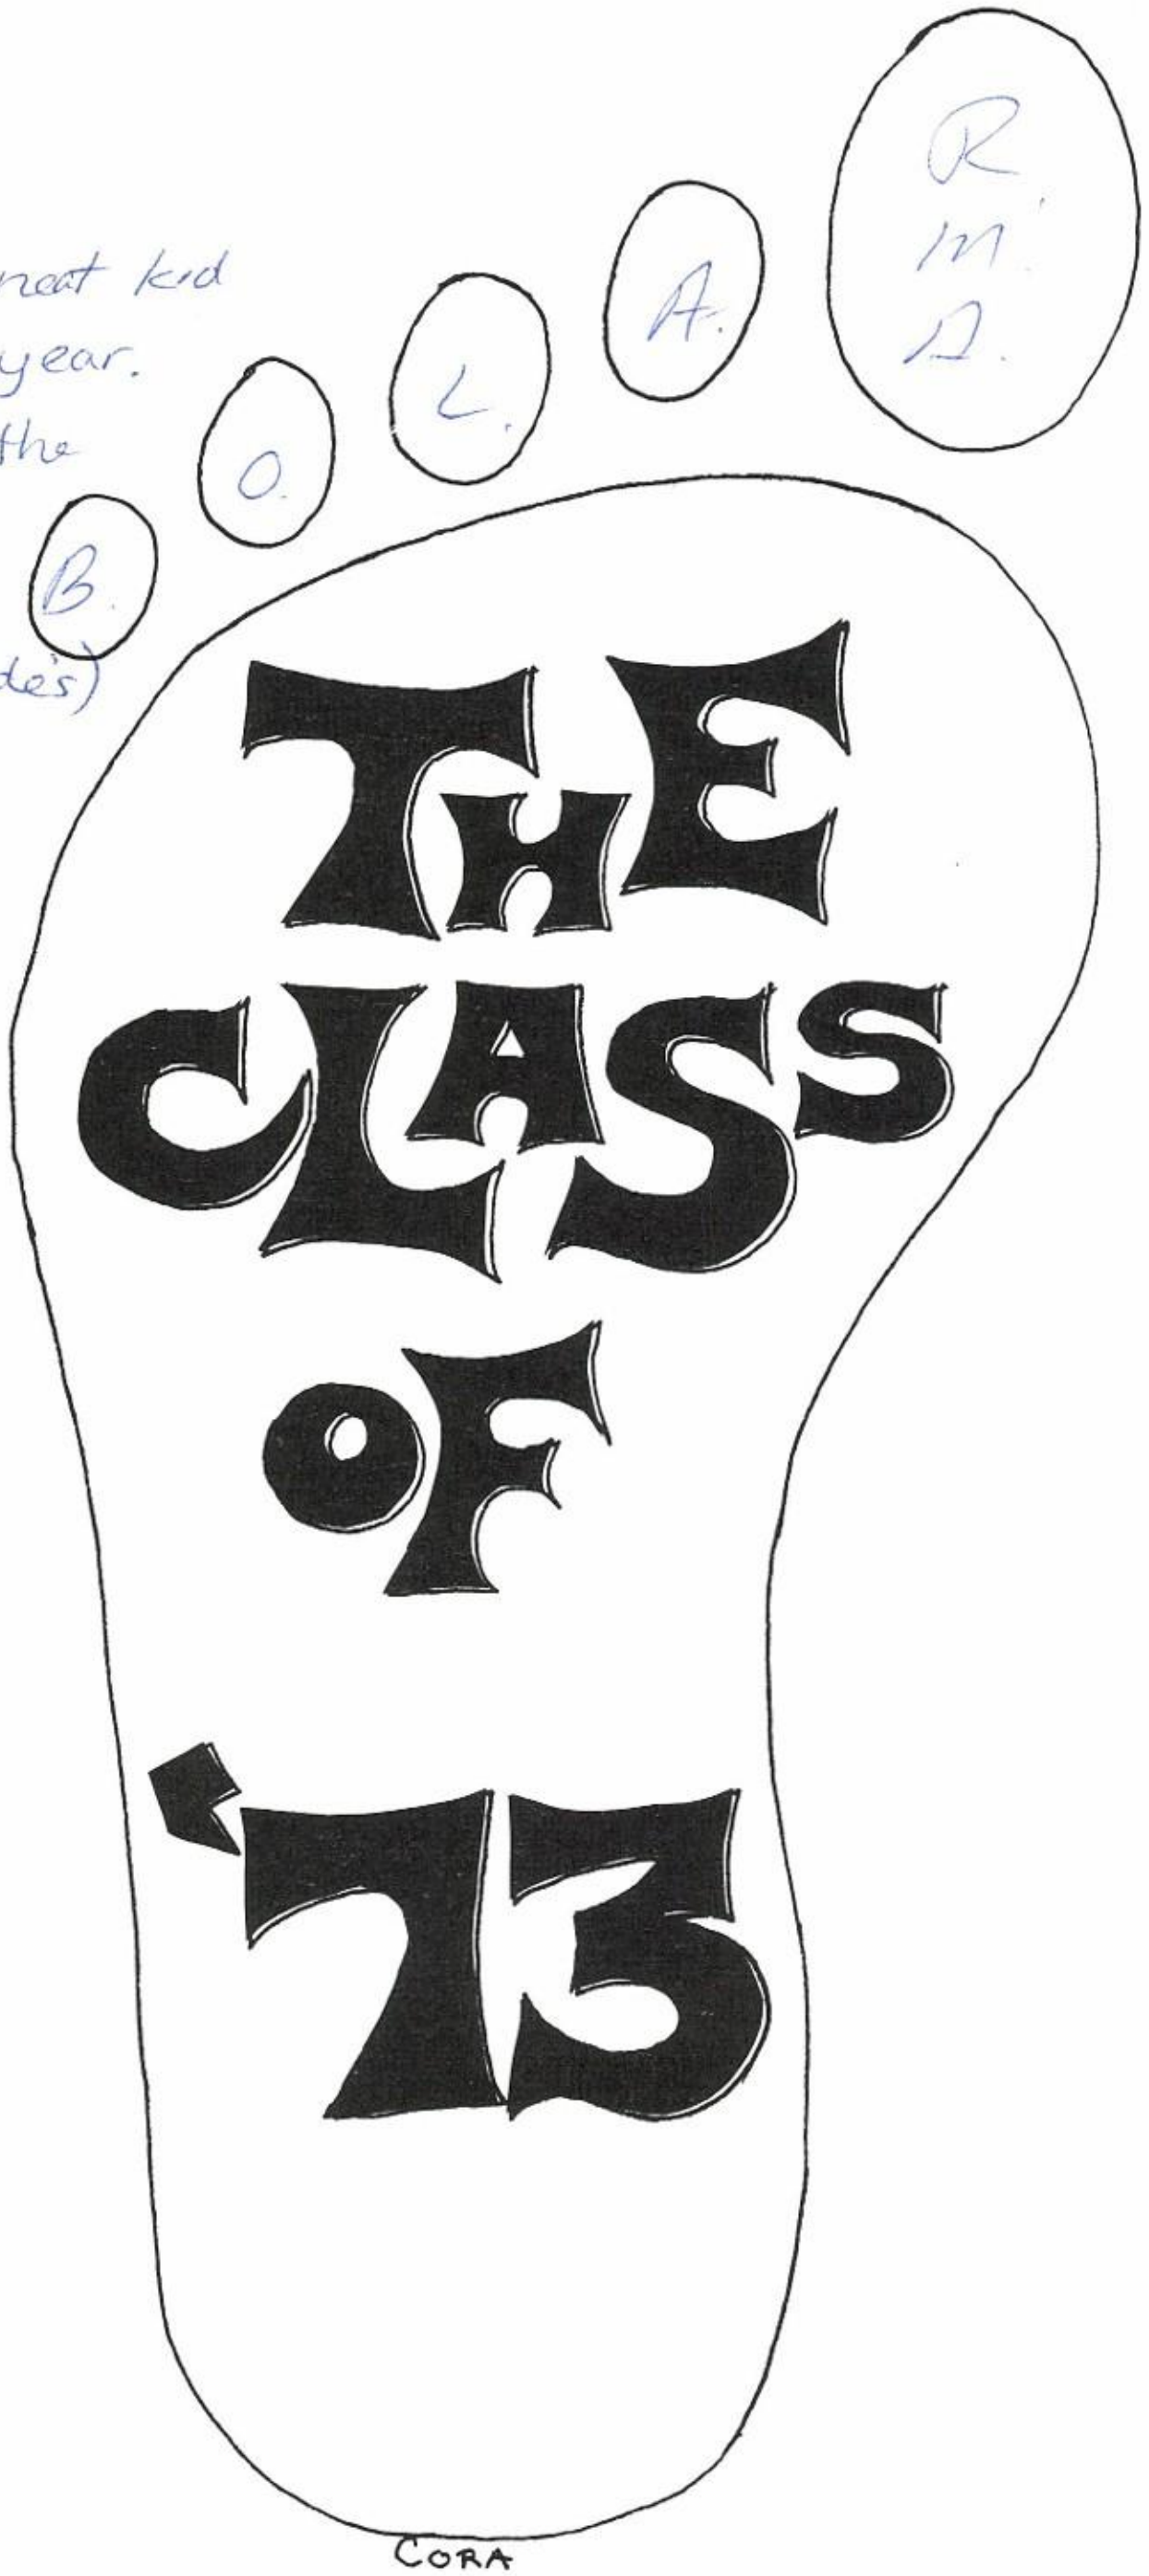
(especially Meade's)

Jeff



Remember your first step, your first words, the first time you tied your own shoes?

Maybe not, but do you remember your first day of school? At that time it was your most frightening step in life—all the new people, friends, and teachers, who helped to guide you and broaden your knowledge of reading, writing, and New Math.

Stumbling from childhood into adolescence and Junior High School gave you the opportunity to become involved in activities: sports, clubs, musical groups. Then came the leap into Senior High, where you slowly became aware of the world existing beyond the school walls. Your interests expanded and your values were shaped.

Now we are preparing to take our biggest step. Graduation has come and we the class of '73 are now ready for a new path. Will we step into a job, marriage, or higher education?

Whichever path we choose we must proceed: step by step.

Those Incredible First Words

Sherri Clark

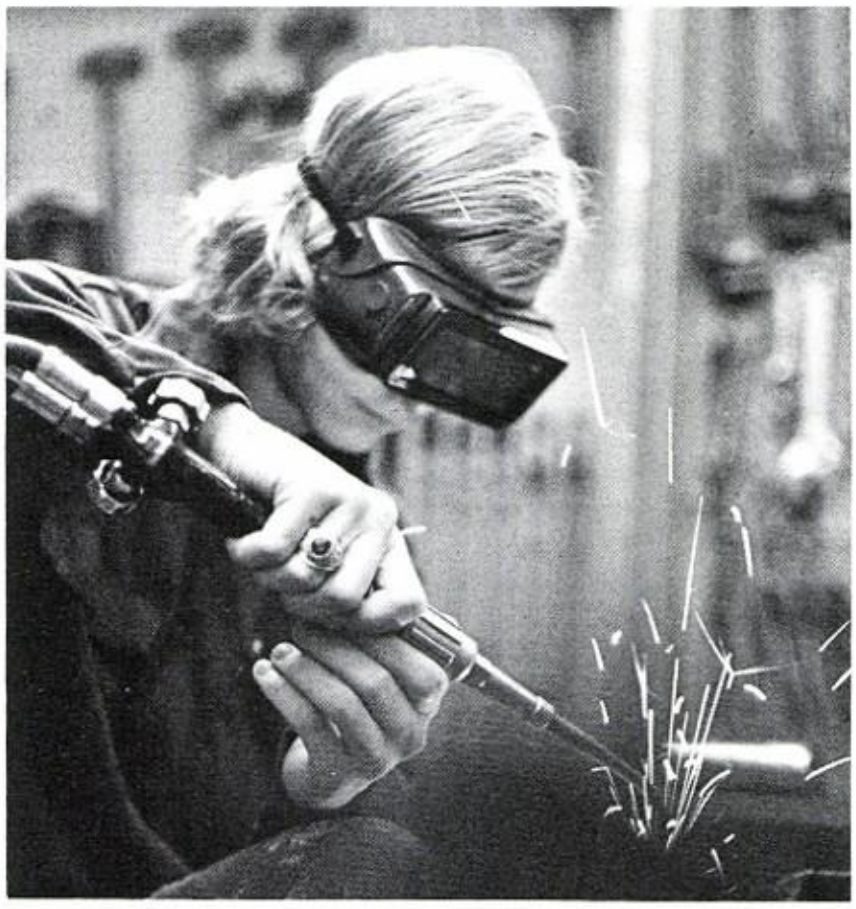
Stephen Murray

John Vallo

Class Colors: Green and Gold
Class Flower: Yellow Rose
Class motto:

"We have opened the door of life. We shall walk through it to success."

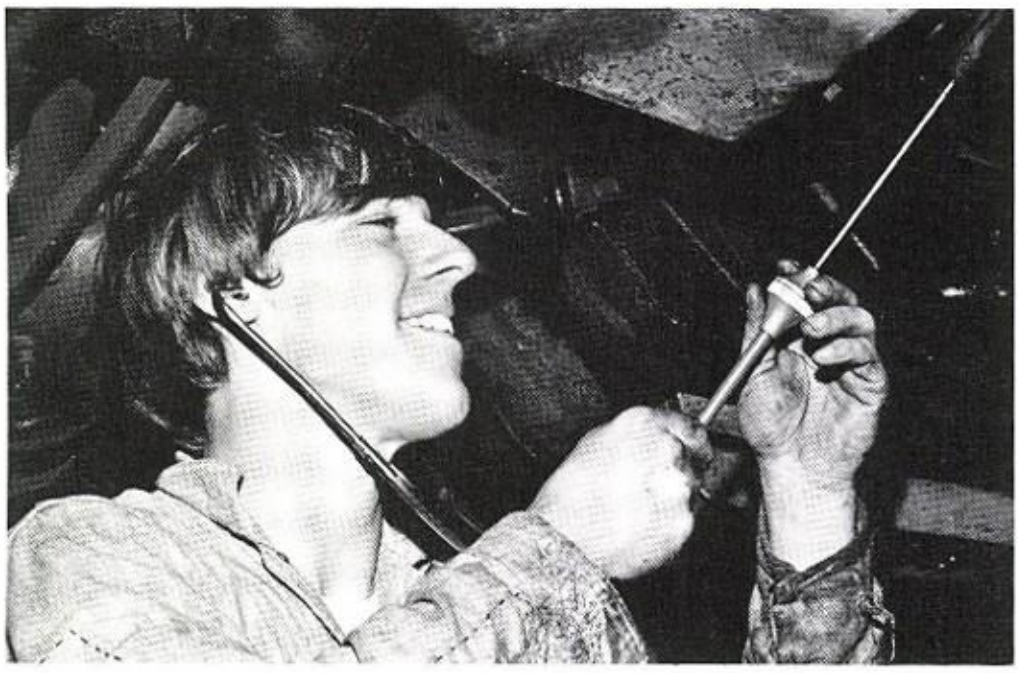
Hey, watch out for the fingers, Cindy.



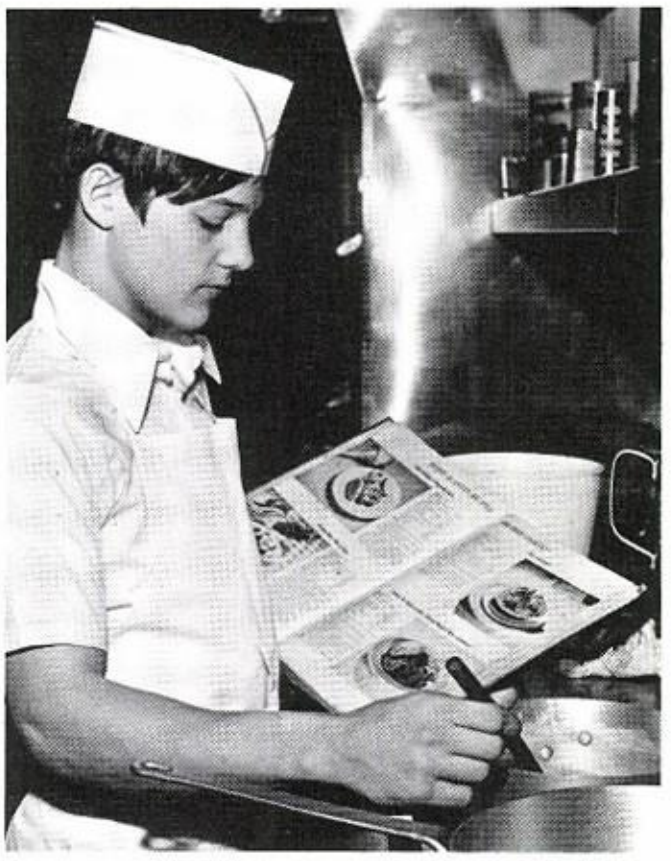
Deter's hard at work.

Berks Vo Tech Skills and Trades

That's it. Sit there and draw cars all day.

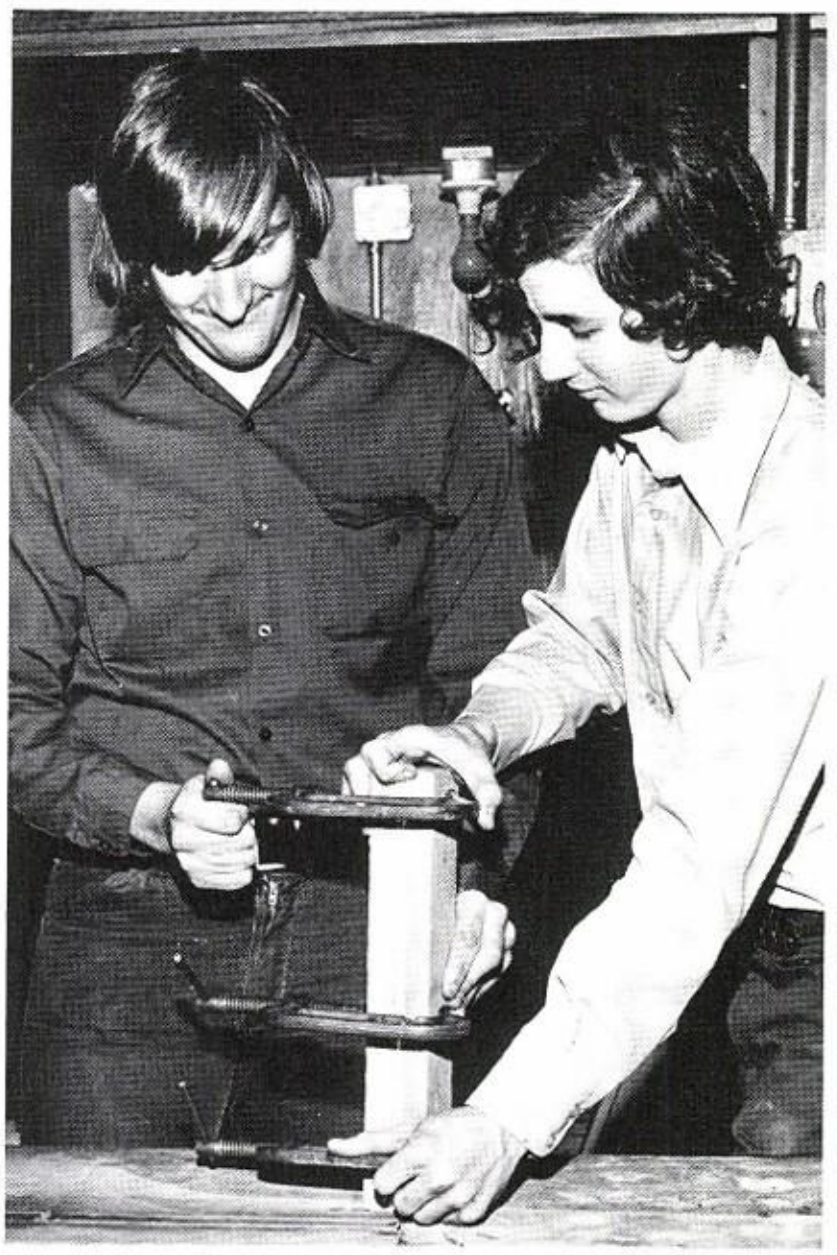


"Doctor" Ron?

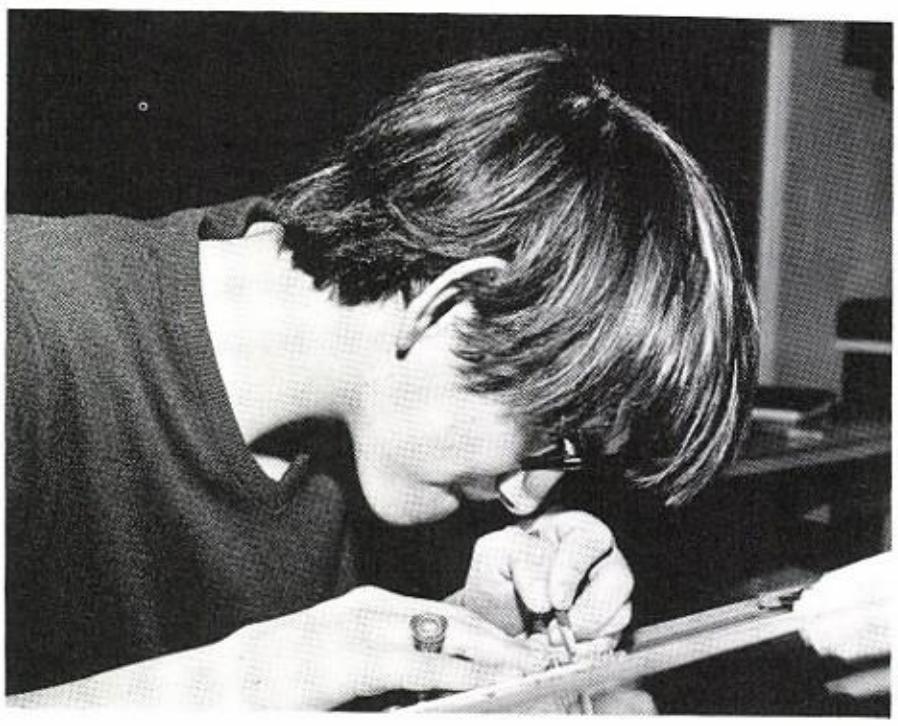


Cooking for 1,000 is exasperating!!

Every once in a while the teacher has to get into the act.



Hold it tighter now, guys.



Careful now.

Hair gets so messy!!

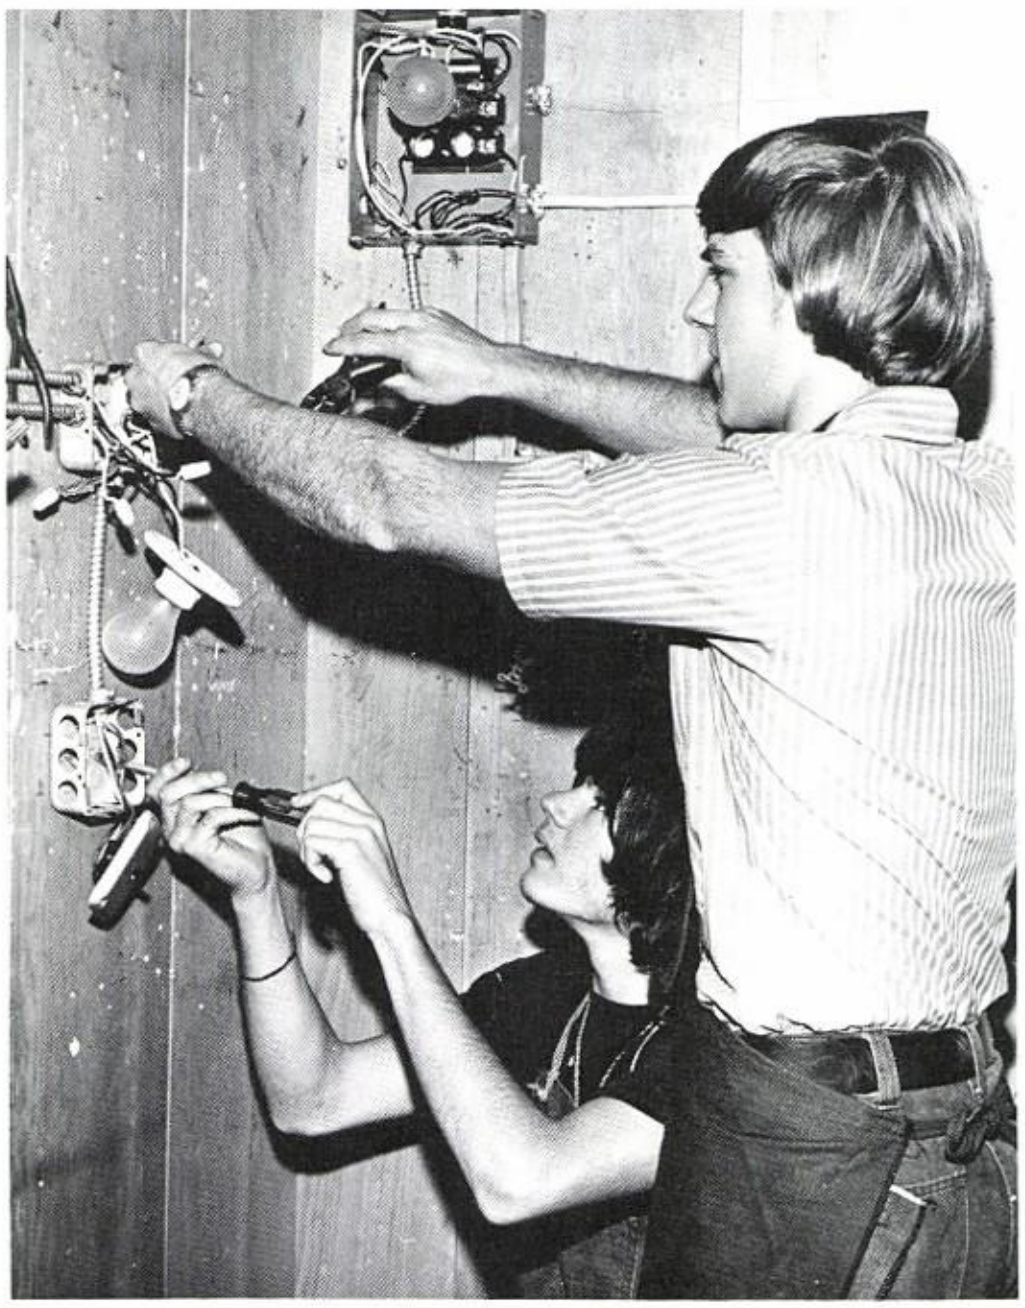
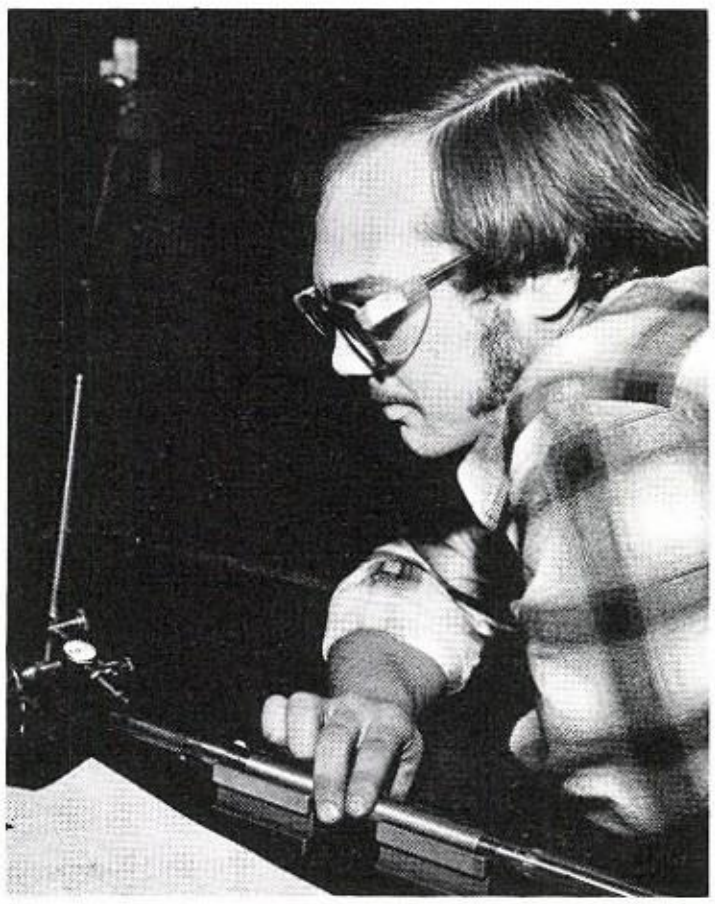
How's it going, Barry?

Tim's carefully checking a refrigerator motor.



One false move and ZAPPPP!!!

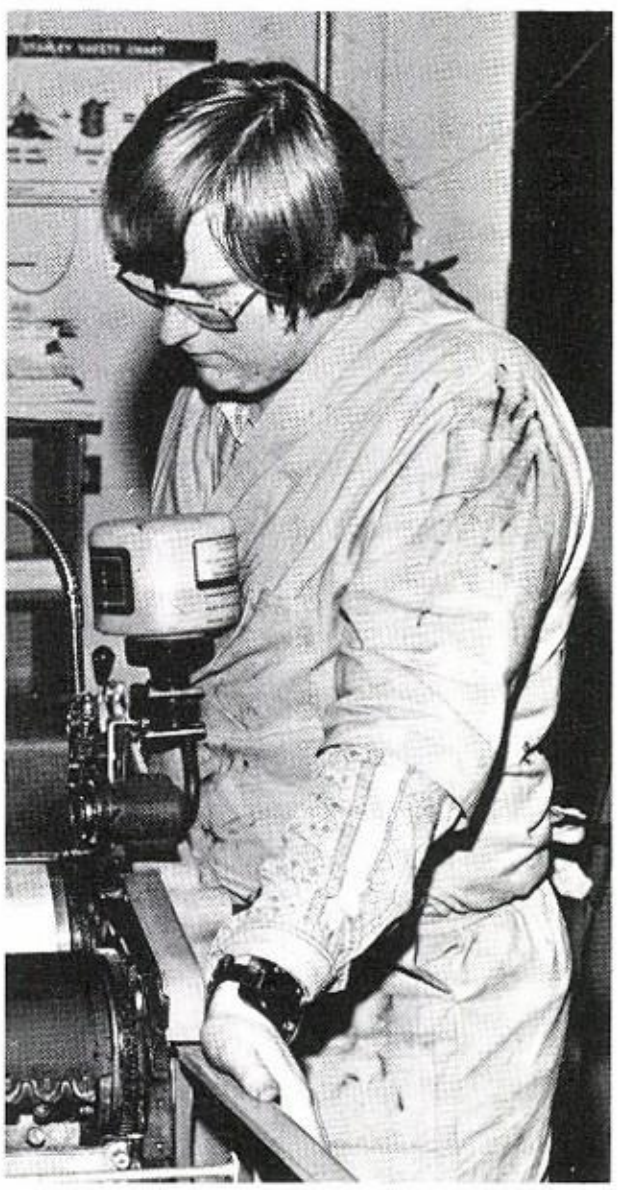
Just call me Chas.



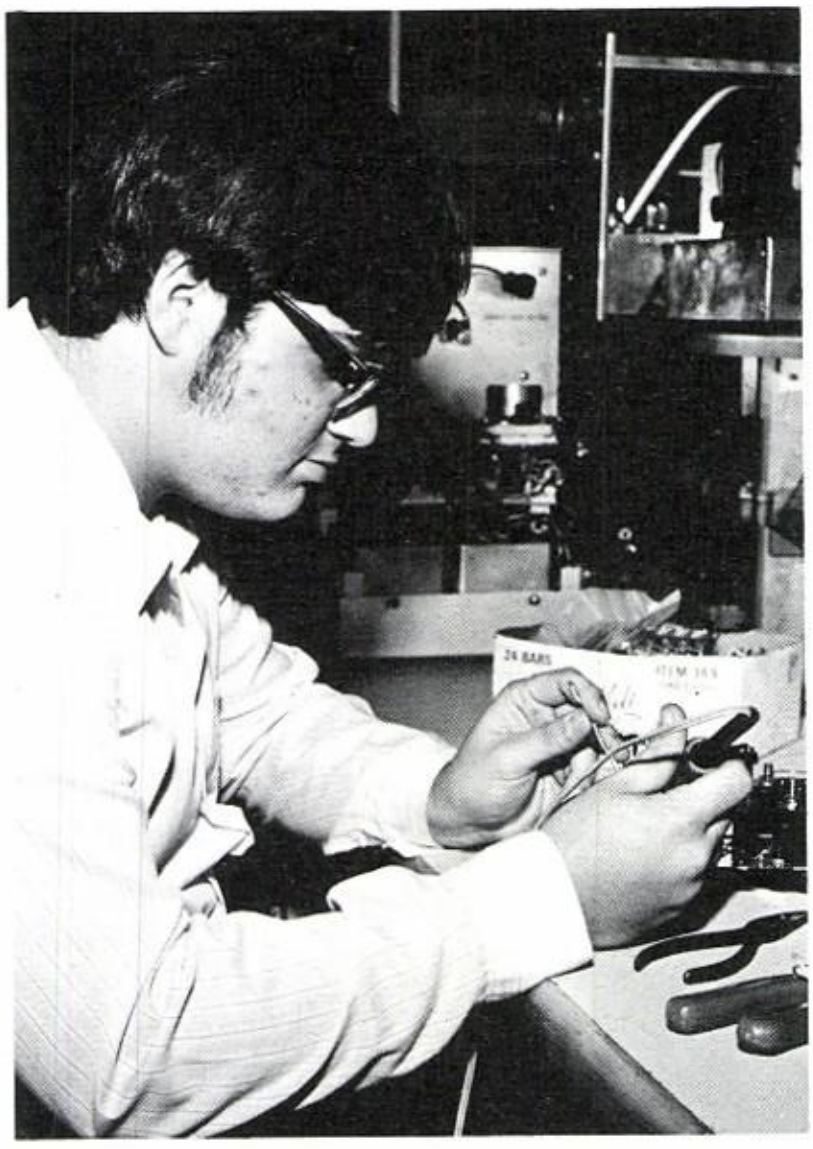
Super fine precision.

Trowels anonymous strikes again!

Looks more like a giant juke box to me.



Mercer done it!



Tom's trade is gadgets.

Will it hurt?

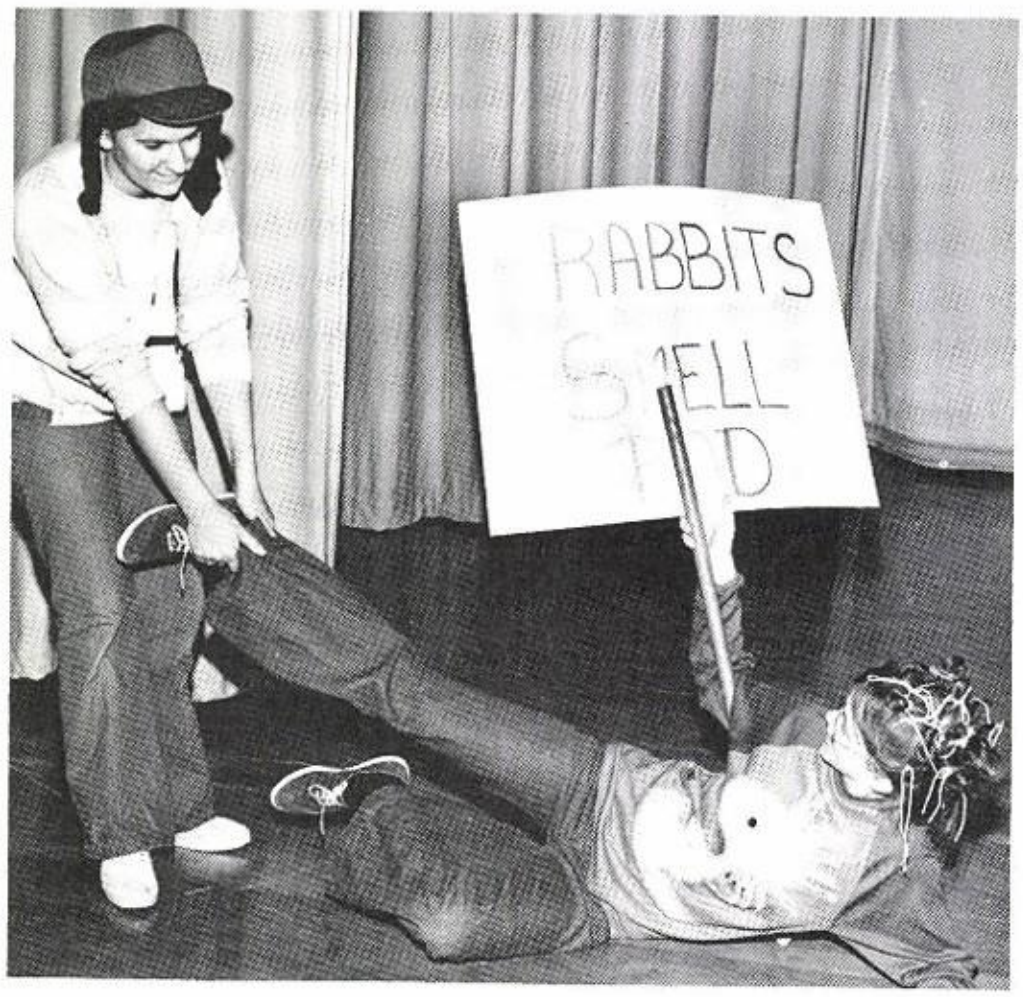
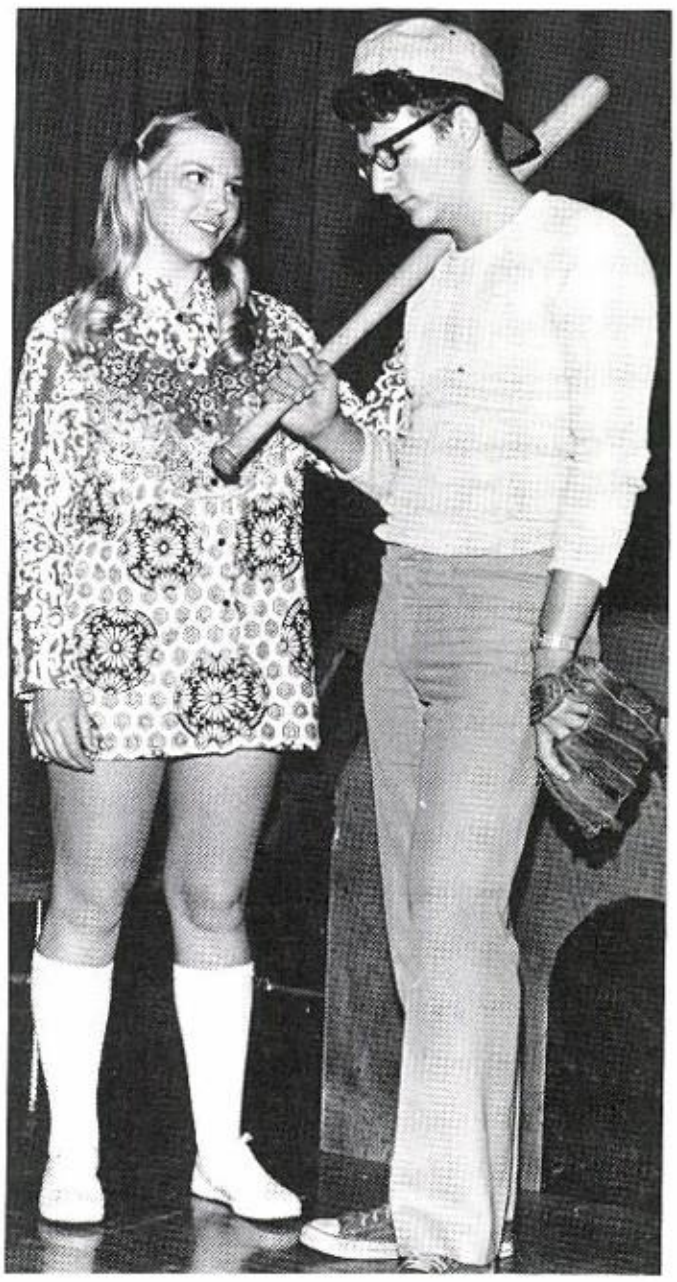
Mary and Craig, "Mad Scientists at work."

"You're A Good Man Charlie Brown"

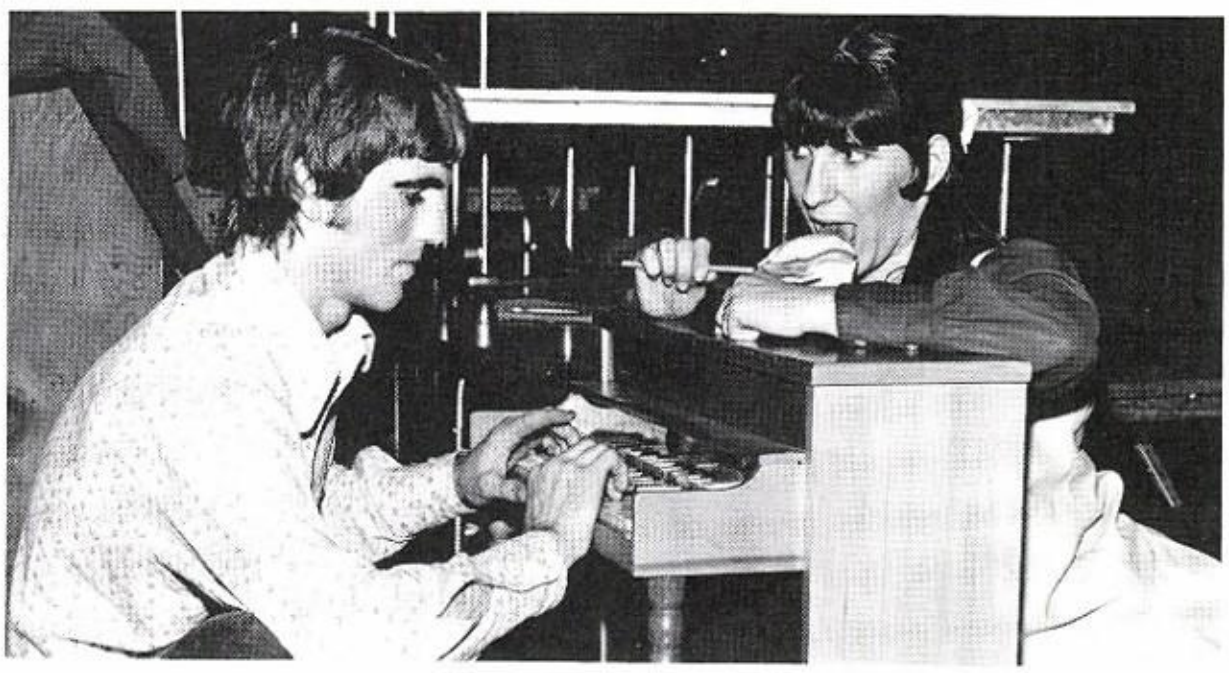


"You're pulling my leg!"



"Don't get discouraged Charlie Brown. We'll win one someday."

"Your loyalty touches me deeply, Sally. You are truely a child of enlightenment."



"What would you think if someday you and I should get married, Schroeder?"

"Dear Anne Flanders . . ."

NO! Mrs. Fullwood, we will not take our scripts on stage with all the people out there.

CHARLIE BROWN'S GANG

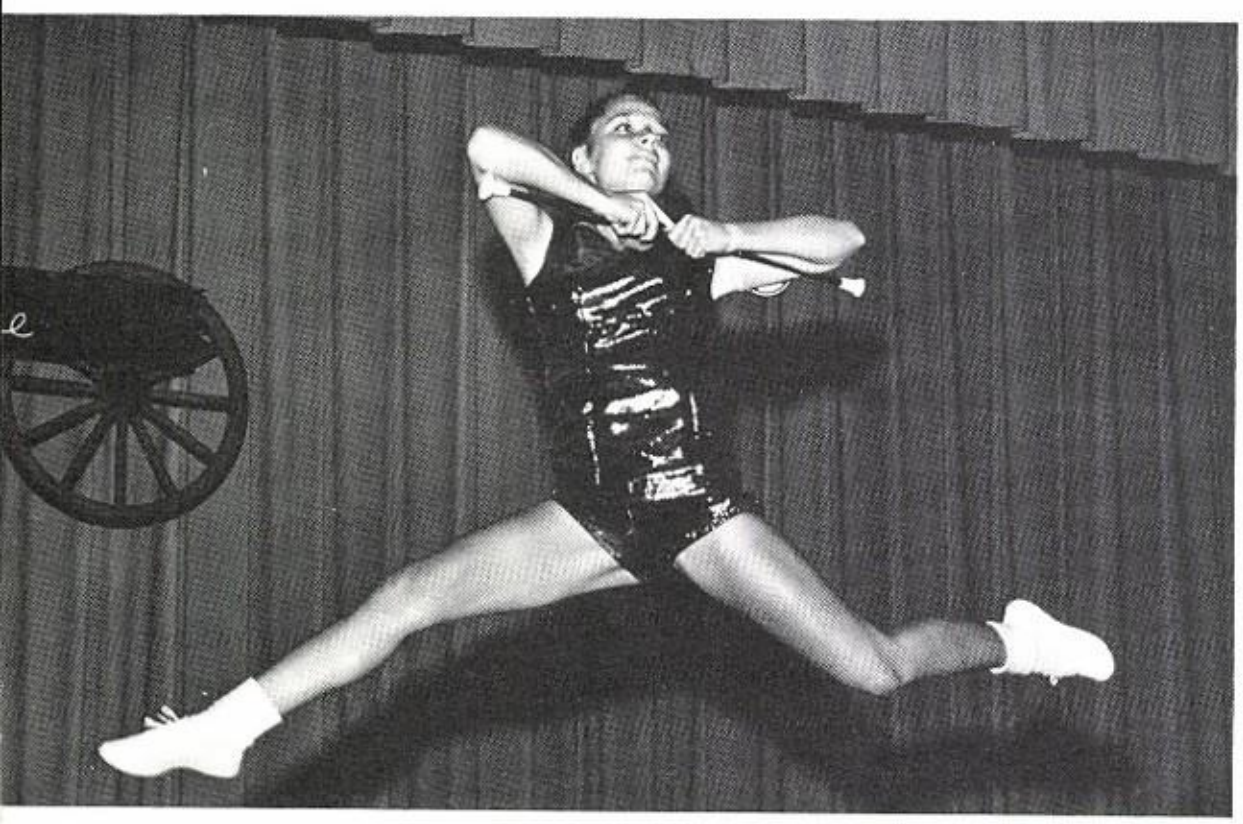
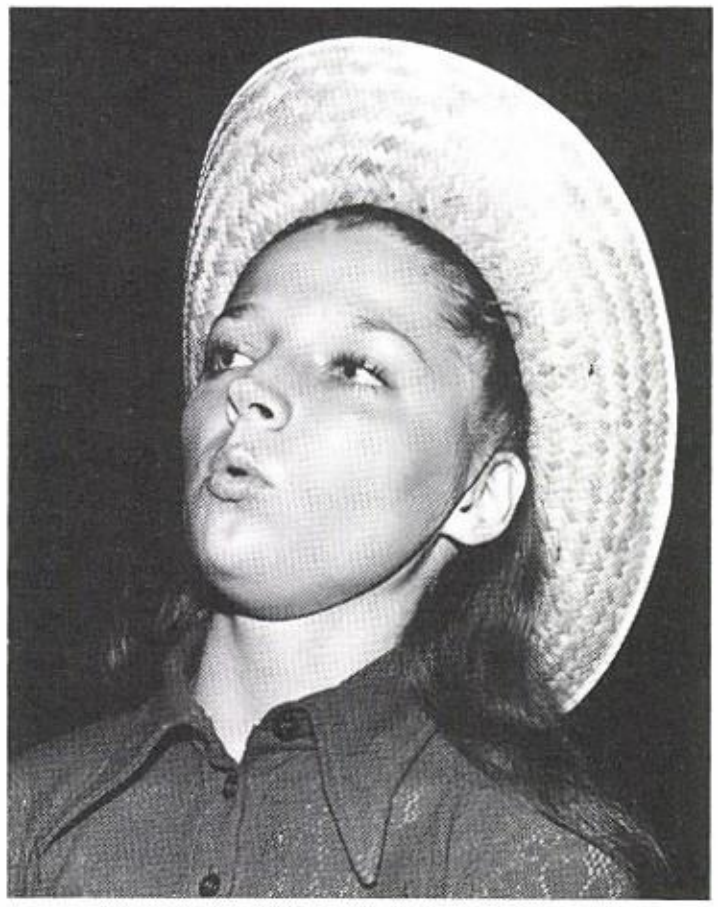
JUNIOR MISS

A Stairway to the Stars

Our Junior Miss: Susie Riegner

The finale of a memorable experience.





Susie enjoyed her whistling.

Homecoming: 1972

Sue Riegner and Karen Johnson.

Jeanne Marquet and Joni McKinney.

Helen Finkbone is crowned by her sister Chris.

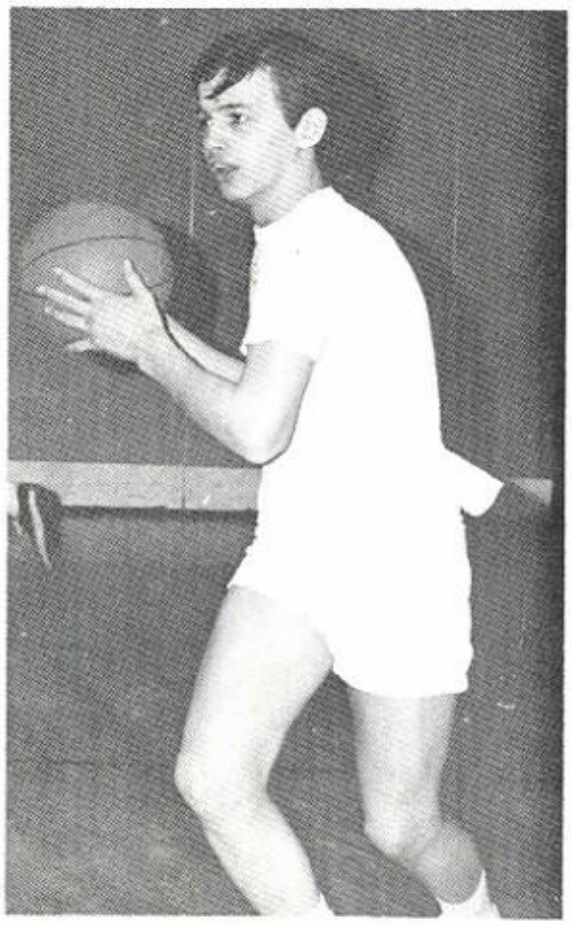
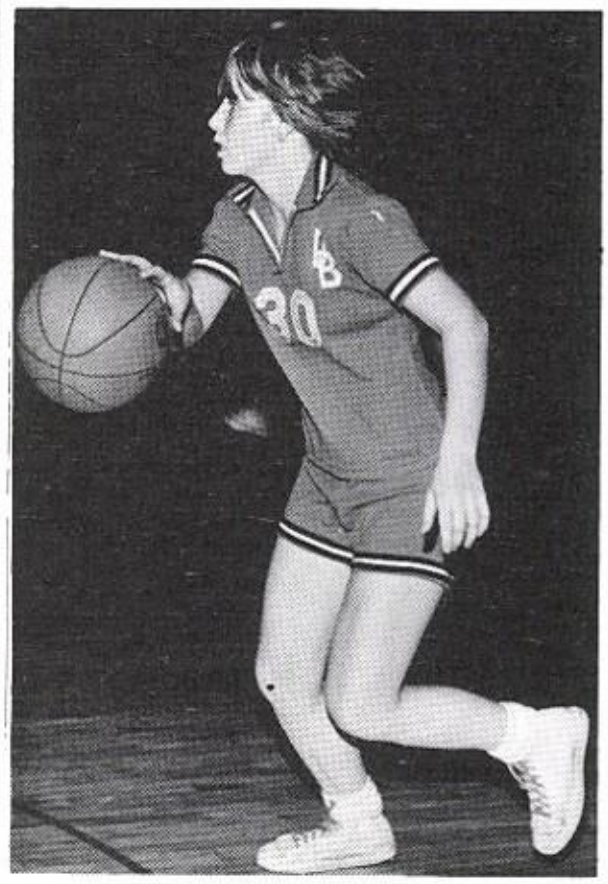
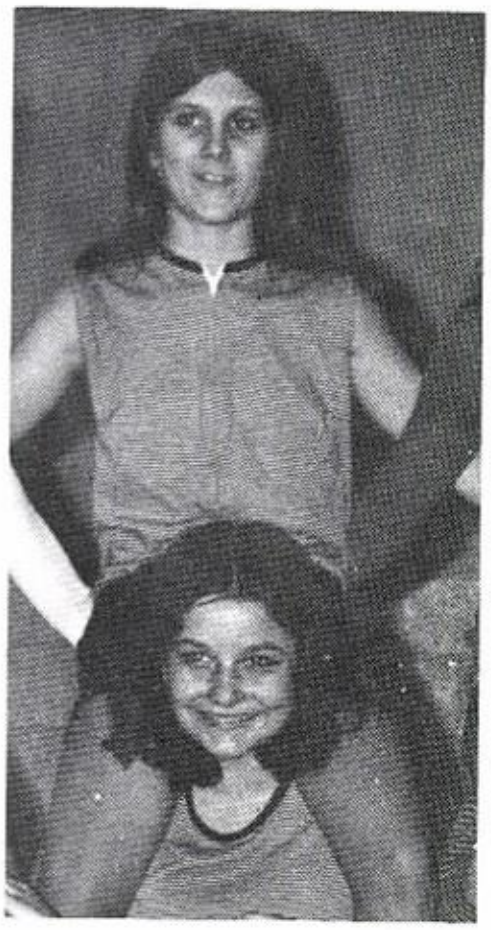
Those Incredible First Words

Oh That Giant Step!!

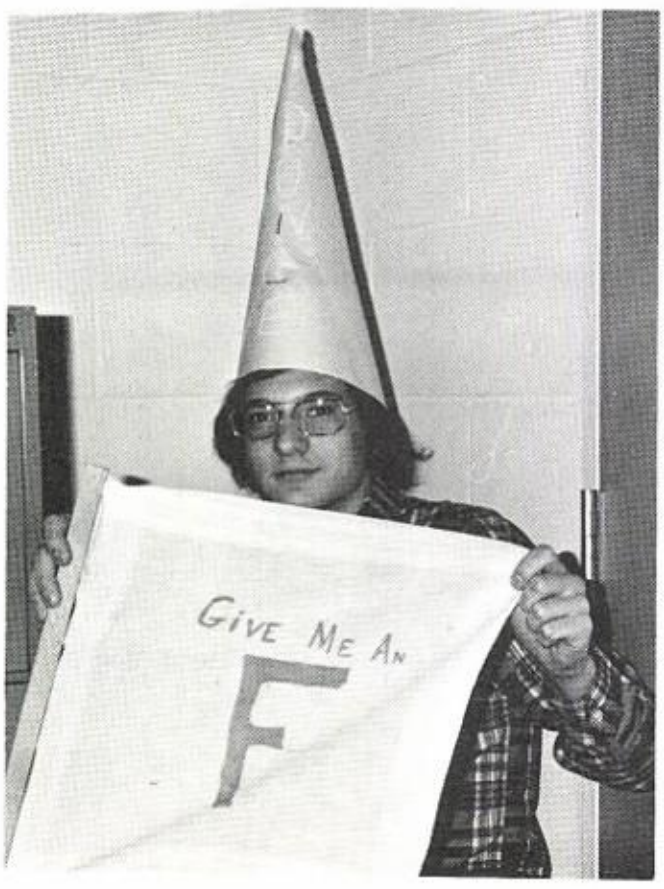


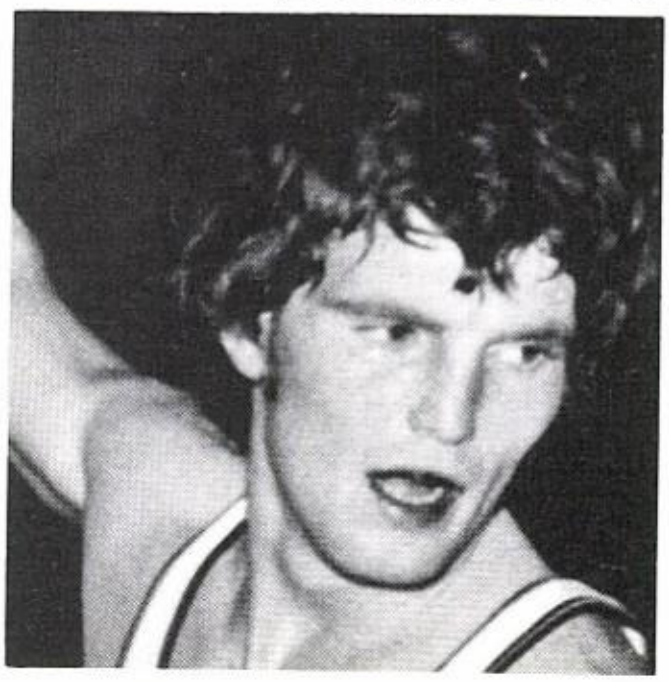


The First Ride



From The World Of Make Believe . . .





To Reality.

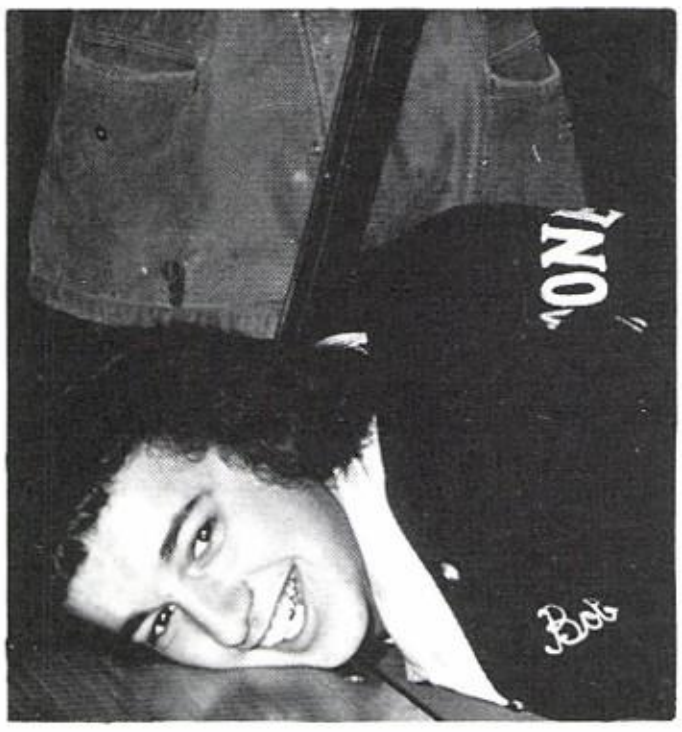
The Bare Necessities

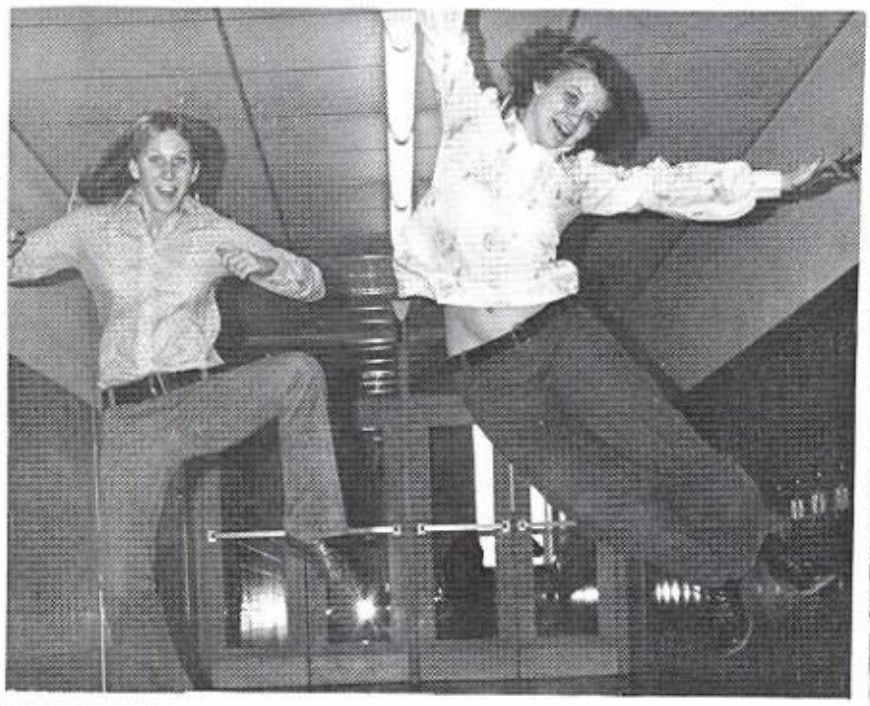
Those secure moments.

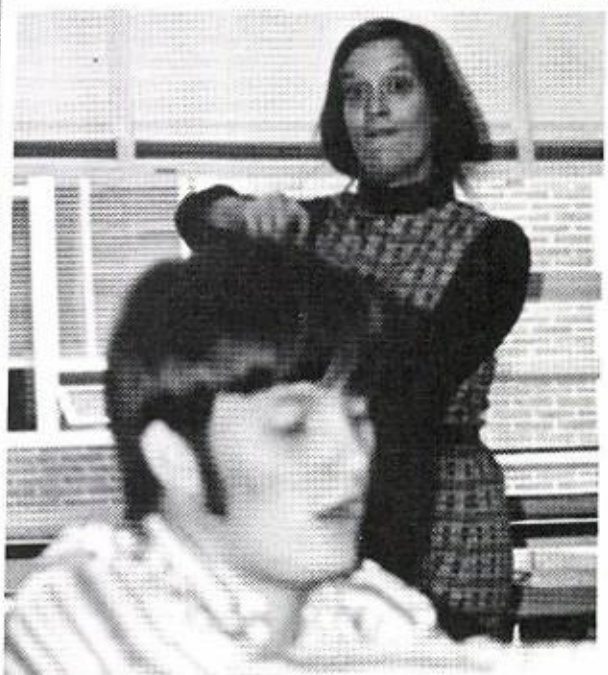
When daddy got his camera out . . .

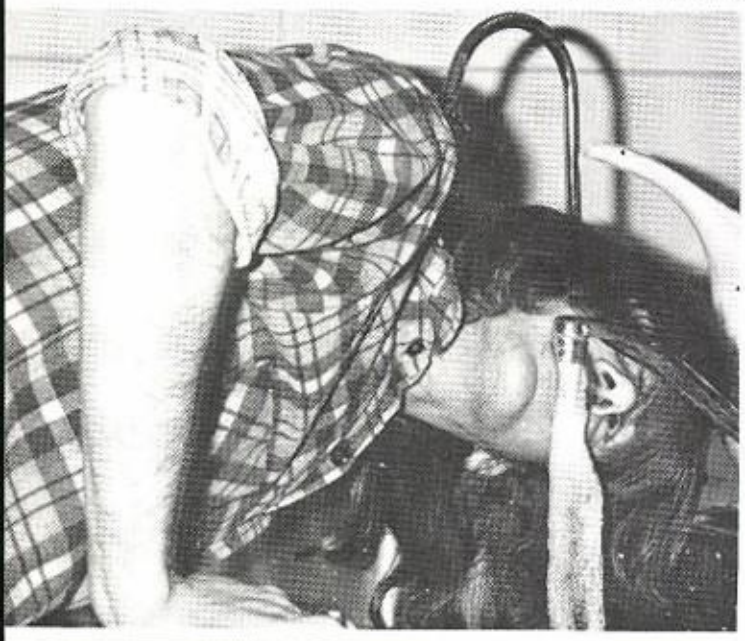
We learned how to pose.

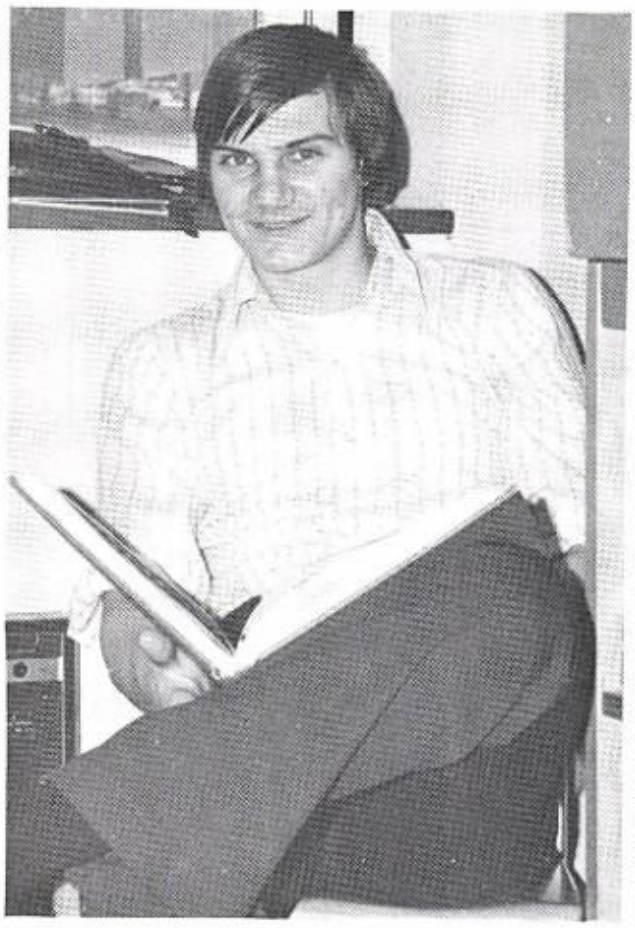
And then there were two . . .

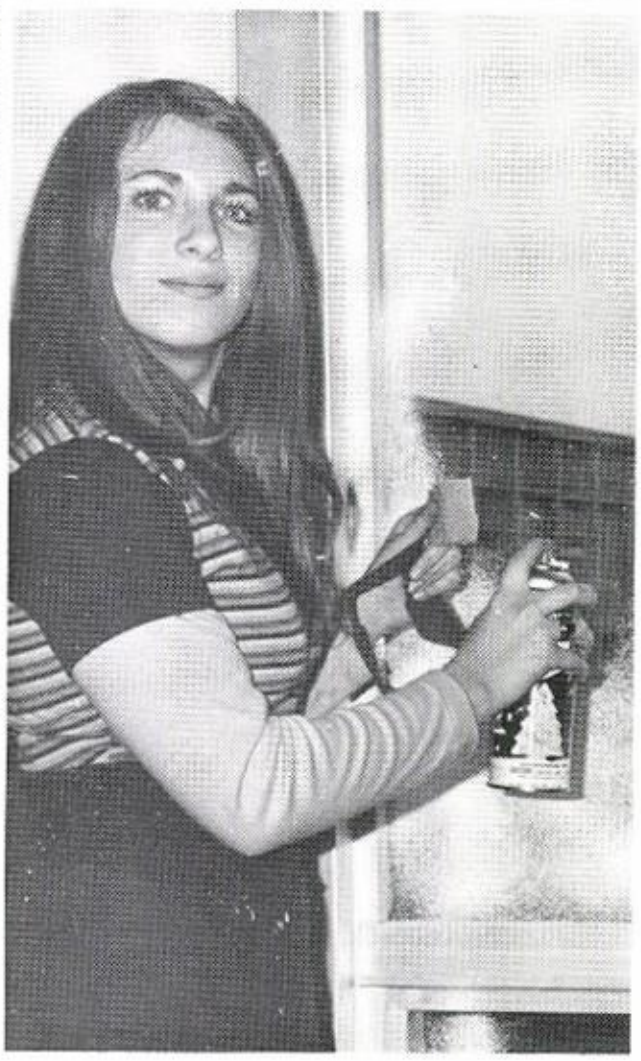


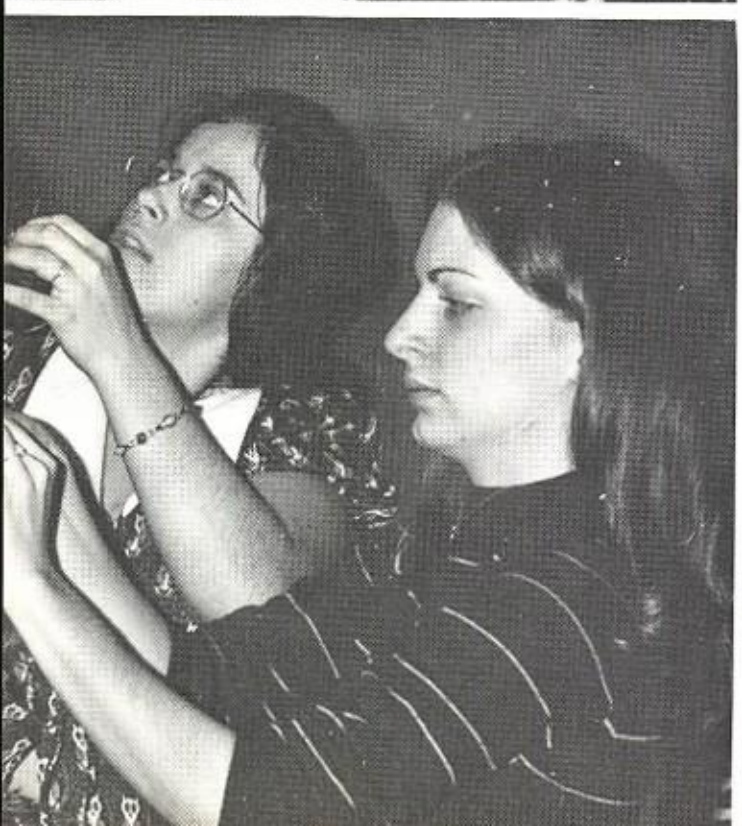


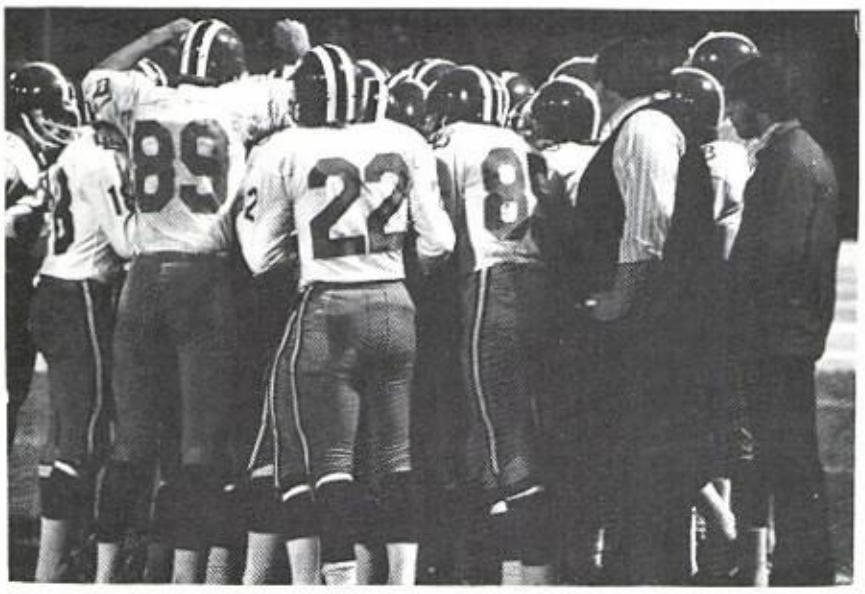


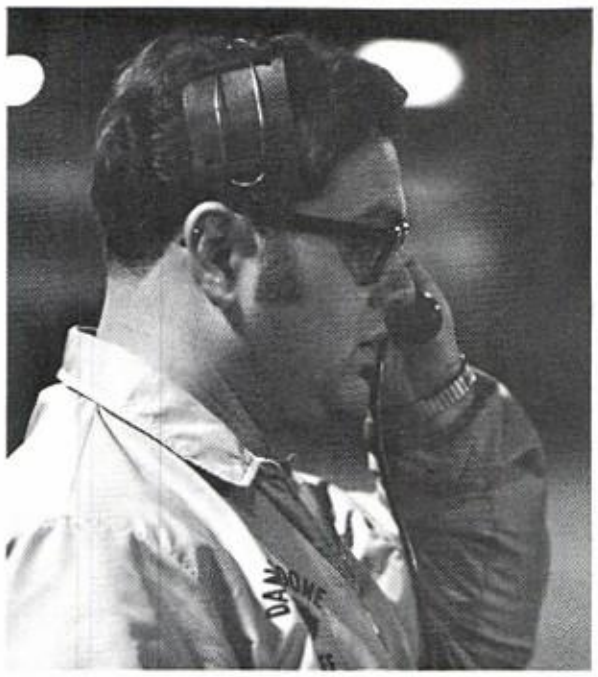


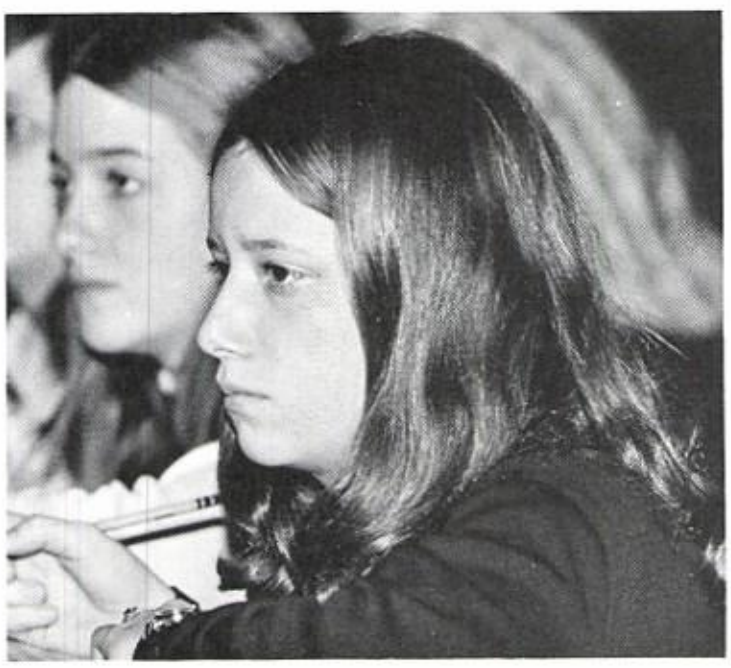












Will it matter that we are gone?
